

We had a Super Bowl party at our church last night, there were many people there with their children, fortunately we had voluntary prayer time during the half time presentation. It is outrageous that at 8 pm we would be exposed to such explicit vulgarity. The Super Bowl should be something that anyone should be able to watch, not just those over 17. The entire half time show was too much for anyone under the age of 17. We are allowing too much sexuality over the airwaves, and then wonder why 12 year olds are getting pregnant.
